

National Association of Marine Laboratories
Biennial Fall Meeting
Cousteau Center
130 Great Bay Boulevard
Tuckerton, New Jersey 08087

Agenda

October 24, 2017

4:00 Welcome and introductions
Overview of Marine Field Programs at Rutgers University

Mike De Luca

5:00 Tour of the Life on the Edge Exhibit

7:00 Dinner (at local restaurant)

October 25, 2017

8:30 Continental breakfast

9:00 Public Policy Update

Bob Cowen
Joel Widder
Meg Thompson

10:00 Fisheries research priorities at NOAA/NMFS

Cisco Werner

10:30 Science Presentations

Advantages of long-term sampling programs:
Insights from the past 25+ years

Ken Able

Towards resolving temporal/spatial scale constraints for marine animal tracking programs

Tom Grothues

11:30 Break

11:45 Science presentations continued

Shellfish research and aquaculture

Coastal management user conflict:

Red knots, horseshoe crabs and shellfish aquaculture

Dave Bushek

Lisa Calvo

Getting to resilience: a community-based

Lisa Auermuller

12:45 Lunch (provided)

Trail walk

- 1:30 Science presentations continued
Coastal Geomorphological Evolution: Norb Psuty
Development of a Regional GeoDataBase
Sentinel site initiative: a networked approach to early detection of environmental change Andrea Habeck
- 2:30 Break
- 2:45 NAML Business Meeting
Agenda development for 2018 Public Policy Meeting
Topics for Hill Briefing(s)
Financial report
Education report
- 5:00 Tour of the Marine Field Station

- 7:00 Dinner at the Marine Field station

October 26, 2017

- 8:30 Continental breakfast
- 9:00 Regional association meetings
NEAMGLL
SAML
WAML
- 11:30 Regional report outs
- Noon Adjourn
Lunch (provided)